COCOA.

School will open the middle of September.

Mr. O. K. Wood, of Stuart, arrived here Friday.

Fresh fruits are plentiful at present in our markets.

Mr. Porcher was at home for a day or two this week.

Cocoa seems to be a busy town. Carpenters all at work.

The engine for Mr. Jalma Lapham's launch came Tuesday.

Mrs. Whitaker has been ill for several days, but is improving.

The dramatic club will have another play in the near future.

Mr. J. F. Mitchell has moved his family into the Sloane house.

Mr. Moore has moved his family to the vacant house near the station.

Miss Ethel Wayt is visiting Miss Elaine Wilson, in Rockledge.

The road from the town's north limit certainly needs some repairs.

Mrs. Brown, from Melbourne, is here having some dental work done.

Major Taylor, of Titusville, was in town this week selling fire extinguishers.

A handsome go-cart came in this week for little Abbie Elizabeth Lapham.

Dr. Frederick and Messrs. Tuttle, Provost and Taylor were in Cocoa this week.

Miss Hattie Bower, of Georgiana, is the guest of Miss Vera Hibbs, of Rockledge.

Mr. Douglass, of Kissimmee, has opened a blacksmith shop at Demro's old stand.

Mr. and Mrs. Hindle are comfortably located in the house in front of Mrs. Hill's store.

Some interest in the election for railroad commissioner was manifested here Tuesday.

The Saturday afternoon dancing club had an attendance of over 40 last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Powers occupy the rooms above the store, corner of Delaney and Harrison streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Ensminger, of Rollins college, were here this week in the interest of the college.

Miss Hopkins, the intermediate teacher for the next term, at this place, visited Miss Carter this week.

Miss Mary Whitfield, A. L. Bruner and Walter Linderberg, of Georgiana, were in town Thursday.

Mr. Porcher is home from Jacksonville for a short stay. His family will stay at Sea Breeze until school opens.

Miss Amy Kitching is visiting with Mrs. Bliss, while Trixie Kitching went to Jacksonville to meet Mrs. Jarvis.

Col. and Mrs. E. C. Wade are now pleasantly located in Washington, D. C., Col. Wade being engaged in business there.

Dr. Hughlett was called in to see Col. Setze, who has been confined to his room since the attack of vertigo he had a few weeks ago.

Mrs. R. B. Holmes and A. J. visit. The Holmes soon tired of back-sitting on the beach.

Dr. J. O. Seafeld is now in Tenn., the guest of Prof. W. A. Scott, who has charge of the Y. M. C. A. branch in that city.

The little folks were out in full force to help Miss Ethel Gore celebrate her birthday. She was two years old on the 7th, and had a big party.

Mr. John P. Knight received a telegram Thursday saying that their baby had died in Palatka. Mrs. Knight was visiting relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Shultz (formerly Mrs. Sherlock, of Ocala) were in town last week looking after seines and the fishing outfit. They go to the lower river.

Diamonds are getting very plentiful in this neck of the woods. A Zach Dixon found a fine bunch of them on the road. By proving property owner can have them.

Mrs. Heaton leaves today (Friday) for an extended visit to Geneva, Fla. On her return she will occupy their own house, which will be thoroughly renovated inside and out.

John M. Frey, superintendent of the Travis grove, at Bonaventure, was in town on Saturday. He invested in a large trunk, and we are wondering which one is to accompany him on the wedding trip.

If the spelling in the last month's statements from Sander's store is a little off, Mr. Paterson says it isn't his fault. He can spell, but the new typewriting machine will not. For instance, bouxxter means butter, etc.

Our junior talent will give a minstrel entertainment on September 1st, under the direction of Mr. Fred Church. Those who will take part are: Roy Trafford, John Paterson, Kelly Hooks, Harry and Alfred White. Mr. Church took a prominent part in several benefits given here several years ago.

ROCKLEDGE.

A son made his advent in the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Coward the early part of the week.

Miss Harriet Bower, one of Georgiana's popular belles, is visiting Miss Vera Hibbs this week.

Mrs. Annie Abney, of City Point, and Miss Henrietta Abney, her guest, from Leesburg, were shopping in Cocoa and calling in Rockledge on Tuesday.

Rev. Garrett Van Houte spent several days in Rockledge and vicinity the past week, matters concerning his church work here demanding his attention.

The wild grape crop this year is immense. Vines that cover the fence on either side of the road to the railroad station hang heavy with fine bunches. Jelly made from these grapes is not to be excelled.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Salmon, of South Rockledge, are occupying rooms at White's Cottage at present, and Mr. S. has resumed work with Mr. White upon the new cottage, which is nearing completion.

Fred Aldrich and Walter Slate are painting the new store this week, and the carpenters are putting on their finishing touches. So in a short time the mercantile business of George N. Hatch will be settled in a home of its own.

Leland Hatch broke one of the bones of his right wrist Friday morning. Dr. Hughlett set the broken parts, and the arm will soon be in its normal condition. The fracture was brought about by the usual method—fall from a tree.

Mrs. Will Dyer and four children, of Stuart, are spending a month or so with Mrs. Kate Brown, at City Point. Mrs. Dyer was once numbered among Broadway's school teachers, and friends along this part of the river are pleased to meet her again.

The intense activity among insect life these long August days serves us, perhaps, as a safety valve against indolence and its resulting sins. It has been said, "There's no evil without some compensating good," so let's view the situation from this standpoint and be happy.

Attendance at church Sunday was as good as usual, in spite of the warmth of the morning and prevalence of mosquitoes. Among those present from a distance were Mr. Moore and two daughters, from Merritt; Miss Bower, from Georgiana; Mr. Humphreys, from Indianola, and a quartette of young men from Cocoa. The sermon, which was from the text "We would see Jesus," was clear and strong, and was listened to with close attention.

EAU GALLIE.

Ernest Taylor will go on a vacation shortly.

Dr. and Mrs. Peek were in Eau Gallie on Monday.

G. F. Paddison's large lighter is now in the waters of Indian river and ready for business.

Capt. Lynch has had the schooner Cygnus hauled out on Hodgson's ways, and is having her outfit hauled and painted.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Watts returned from a vacation on Tuesday, many of their friends meeting them on their arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hodgson are cosily settled at the Lodge during the absence of Miss A. Florence Hodgson, who is now in Olean, N. Y.

The Democratic primary election came off here without any excitement on Tuesday. The clerk and inspectors found the day rather monotonous.

Mr. I. G. Gilbert gave a card party in honor of the new bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Hodgson. The evening was a great success. Ice, cake, etc., were served about 11 p. m.

A very enjoyable dance was given at the Indian River Inn on Friday eve last. Music by Messrs. McMillan and Hopkins.

Scrofula

Few are entirely free from it.

It may develop so slowly as to cause little if any disturbance during the whole period of childhood.

It may then produce irregularity of the stomach and bowels, dyspepsia, catarrh, and marked tendency to consumption before manifesting itself in much cutaneous eruption or glandular swelling.

It is best to be sure that you are quite free from it, and for its complete eradication you can rely on

Hood's Sarsaparilla

The best of all medicines for all humors.

About twenty couples tripped the light fantastic till the wee sma' hours of the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Paddison entertained on Monday eve. Progressive whist was the feature of the evening. Among those present were Mrs. I. G. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hodgson, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Peek, Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Hodgson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ainesworth, Mr. J. A. Gilbert, Miss Bessie Hodgson, J. E. M. Hodgson, Mr. Ned Paddison and Mr. Ernest Taylor. Iced sherbet and cake were served about 11:30 p. m., and a most enjoyable time spent by those present. Mrs. Paddison is one of our most popular hostesses.

Ira Lamont was home from Jensen on Sunday.

George Beck was here from Goslingville Sunday.

Carl Christiansen paid his parents and girl a visit on Sunday.

Mr. Austin was in Jacksonville on business the first of this week.

Master John Sorensen, of Jensen, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Austin.

Mrs. Poppell and Mrs. Lamont were the guests of Mrs. Dutton last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Poppell and son Edgar were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Findlay's last Sunday.

Fully two-thirds of our horses and mules were driven to Fort Pierce last Saturday, most of our trading being done there.

Mr. and Mrs. Schultz, of Jensen, were pleasant visitors at the home of Mrs. Schultz's sister, Mrs. Austin, one day last week.

Our people are setting out pines. Quite a number will be planted this fall which means an easier way of making a living than trucking.

The rainy season has surely missed White City for it rains all around and here it is as dry as can be. Nearly every savanna is dry and vegetation is suffering.

Our store is of very little use to us here as it is closed every noon and is very seldom open during the evening. The only way for us to get anything we want from there is to leave our work during the day and go down town and that don't pay.

Henry L. Shattuck, of Shellsburg, Iowa, was cured of a stomach trouble with which he had been afflicted for years, by four boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He had previously tried many other remedies and a number of physicians without relief. For sale by Wilson & Son, druggists.

The Lamp of Steady Habits

The lamp that doesn't flare up or smoke, or cause you to use bad language; the lamp that looks good when you get it and stay good; the lamp that you never willingly part with, once you have it; that's

The New Rochester.

Other lamps may be offered you as "just as good"—they may be, in some respects, but for all around goodness, there's only one. The New Rochester. To make sure the lamp offered you is genuine, look for the name on it; every lamp has it. (300 Varieties.)

Old Lamps Made New.

We can fill every lamp want. No matter whether you want a new lamp or stove, an old one repaired or refinished, a vase mounted or other make of lamp transformed into a New Rochester, we can do it. Let us send you literature on the subject.

We are SPECIALISTS in the treatment of diseases of Lamps. Consultation FREE. THE ROCHESTER LAMP CO., 35 Barclay St., New York.
